DISPERSION SALE

The Frank C. Baker Farms
Shorthorns

KING OF THE FAIRIES
“A Prince of Wales Production”

FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1930

To My Shorthorn Friends

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE nine years would seem quite a span of life, but, looking backward, it seems to me but a few yesterdays since I bought my first Shorthorn cows. My connection with the Shorthorn fraternity has been gratifying in many respects. It has brought many new and lasting friendships, the highest honors of the show arenas, and a true appreciation of good cattle in their affiliation to agriculture.

The dispersion of the Baker Farms herd, at this time is, to me, a sincere regret. The pressure of other business relations, and the rapidity with which a growing city is encroaching on near Kansas City farm lands, are the basic reasons for this decision, and having accepted the inevitable, it is my hope that the distribution of my herd will be for the betterment of Shorthorns and those who are more favorably located to "carry on" to a higher pinnacle of success.

I want to express my appreciation to all those who have contributed to the building of this herd, as it is today—to breeders, judges and caretakers alike, for they are all prime factors in breed improvement.

FRANK C. BAKER

The Passing of a Great Herd

THE DISPERSION SALE of the Frank C. Baker Farms herd of Shorthorns marks the passing into other hands of one of the truly great herds of cattle of this continent. Frank C. Baker, owner, and Chas. Garden, manager, deserve the warmest congratulations and the keenest appreciation of their fellow breeders for the great work they have accomplished through this herd for the advancement of Shorthorn cattle.

Built on a foundation of the very best material from the standpoints of both individuality and bloodlines and headed always by sires of outstanding merit, the herd has never faltered in its progress. The result today is a great lot of breeding cattle and their young offspring, both bulls and heifers, backed up by one of the most remarkable records in show ring performance, both in this country and Canada, within the annals of the breed. It is, indeed, most regrettable that such a herd is not to be held intact and carried on and on, and, yet, what a wonderful opportunity is presented for others to lay in a great foundation, or to enrich their show and breeding herds.

JOHN C. BURNS.

Southernwestern Representative, American Shorthorn Breeders Ass'n.

The Opportunity of a Lifetime

WHILE ALL WHO HAVE FOLLOWED closely the conduct and operations of the Frank C. Baker herd, since the owner first began his careful selection of foundation cattle, will deeply regret this announcement to disperse, they will unanimously accept it as representing the opportunity of a lifetime in the purchase of animals of proven show and breeding worth.

Mr. Baker's association with the breed has contributed generously to animal improvement and he has done quite as much as any man of his day to further the popularity of Shorthorn cattle. As a breeder, a showman, and a man among men, he leaves the breed richer in many respects than when he entered its ranks. His assembling of individual animals from many sources, never satisfied with anything but the best, his art in blending these parts into an efficient breeding unity, and his success in developing from his own matings cattle that have consistently won the greatest showyard honors—almost without precedent in Shorthorn history—places this herd at the very front of all Shorthorn breeding establishments.

The dispersion comes at a time when the herd is at its peak of efficient and almost certain production. He is selling a working, proven herd, show cattle and breeding cattle, breeding cattle that produce show cattle—every animal entitled to go on and produce good results in the hands of new owners. Fortunate will be the men who sit at this ring-side and select from this herd, for they will be buying at their own price, cattle about whose breeding worth there can be no possible doubt or question.

Whatever your needs may be, whether show cattle, foundation matrons, proven sires or great sires in prospect, this sale unquestionably offers the opportunity of a lifetime.

WALTER L. MILLER,
Breeder's Gazette

Selectivity Has Again Proven Its Worth

IN ESTABLISHING HIS SHORTHORN HERD, Mr. Frank C. Baker was determined to secure useful cattle of the most acceptable types and most popular blood lines. This policy has been rigidly followed. His first intention was to maintain only a few cows. When the Fred C. Merry herd, which had gained a national reputation for excellence of individuals became available. Mr. Baker bought the entire herd, retained the tops and sold the others. Later he secured the Alexander herd. In both instances a motivating influence was to secure herd bulls of proven ability. Supreme Commander came with the Merry herd and Ballylin Rodney from Alexander's. Both sired Royal and International champions to justify Mr. Baker's judgment in securing them.

The Baker herd has made a phenomenal record. The major winnings have been with individuals produced on the farm. In less than ten years Mr. Baker has achieved distinction as a breeder which few are able to gain in a life time. No better herd of Shorthorn cattle has ever been dispersed in this territory.

W. A. COCHEL.

Editor Kansas City Weekly Star

Of Great Import to Breeders and Exhibitors

ONLY ONCE in the experience of the average breeder does such an opportunity arise to better the quality and prestige of his herd as will be presented by the dispersal by auction sale of the great Frank C. Baker Farms herd. Such an opportunity should not be disregarded. Study this catalog. Note the extremely large number of sons and daughters of the famous Ballylin Rodney that are to be sold. Remember that the record of his get in the biggest fairs and stock shows of the last five years stamps him conclusively as the greatest of all sires of his day and generation. He was the type to which the breed is progressing now and to which it will arrive ultimately. His calves of both sexes have inherited that type in a remarkable degree, and they are potent and pass along that inherited tendency.

Consider also the opportunity to put at the head of your herd an International grand champion bull while he is still active and has years of usefulness before him. Realize what it will mean to you to own a bull with a show record as marvelous as that of Roan Villager and one that has sired calves that have added to the lustre of his name.

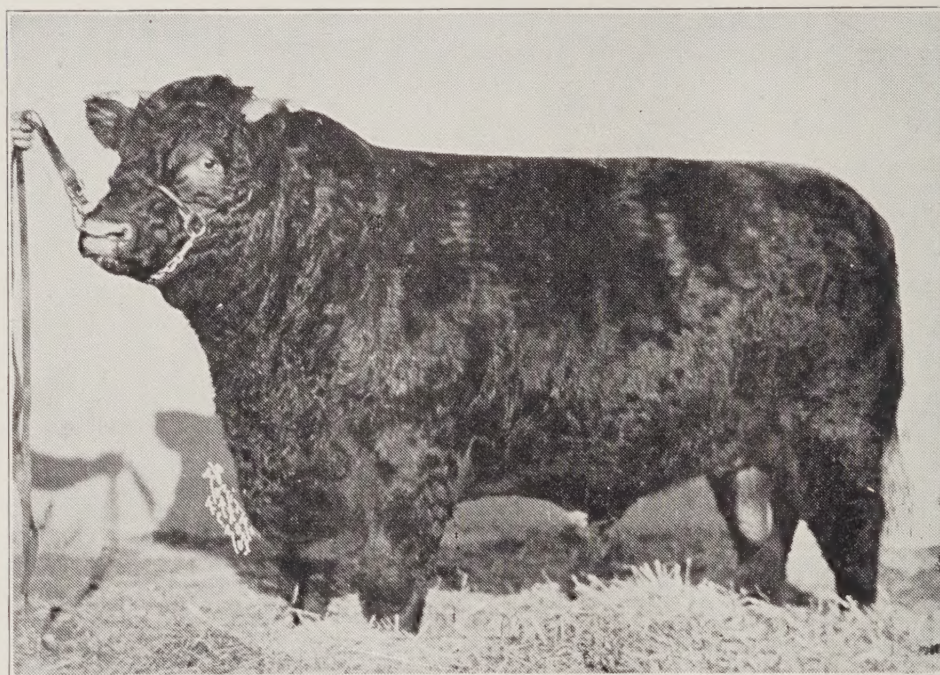

Observe that a great imported sire is for sale, one that brings to America an inheritance of the greatest sires in Scotland, that are acclaimed famous wherever Shorthorns are known. Note that he, Masquerade, is just arriving at his mature form, and yet, that he has sired calves that prove him to be perhaps the most successful sire that has been imported for many years.

See the great list of notable matrons that you will have a chance to procure. Cows and heifers that have won innumerable championships, many of them having produced champions. Know that in buying these females you are securing the stock that has made it possible for this herd to become the outstanding representative of the breed in the American Show Yard. Consider also that if you wish to achieve fame as an exhibitor that this herd contains more than one animal for each class, that will be a strong contender for, if not the winner, of highest honors in the greatest expositions in America.

It is not a question of price. The public will determine that and it will be low enough. It is the great opportunity of the present era to secure great cattle, constructively bred, that will build improvement within the herds into which they will go, cattle that have won and retained the approval of the public and will win recognition for the breeder that has the foresight and understanding to buy them.

Ballylin Rodney

Ballylin Rodney's untimely death in December, 1928, prevented his picture appearing on the cover page of the Breeders Gazette the following month as the greatest living Shorthorn sire. Ballylin Rodney was a bull of great individuality. He had a strong masculine head and neck. He was short of leg, remarkably straight in his lines, blocky and of the thick-fleshed, early-maturing type. In the fall and winter he grew a beautiful coat of dark red color, which was not only pleasing to the eye but indicative of his splendid quality. To his get Ballylin Rodney conveyed great character, quality and uniformity. In 1928 they won, among their many honors sixteen first prizes in the get of sire classes, and they duplicated their record of 1928 in 1929, with but two exceptions. Ballylin Rodney was truly a remarkable bull and has set in motion an improvement in Shorthorns that is most impressive. The influence of his sons and daughters will make Shorthorn History for future generations.

The Baker Farms Winnings

SELDOME, IF EVER, has any breed won more prizes in the shows of America and Canada than has the Frank C. Baker Farms Shorthorns. In the five years, from August 1, 1925, to the present time this herd has been awarded nearly 1500 prizes, in competition with the greatest show herds of the world, as follows:

Championships	130
First Prizes.....	563
Second Prizes.....	359
Third Prizes.....	240
Fourth Prizes.....	105
Fifth Prizes.....	60
Sixth Prizes.....	20
Seventh Prizes.....	14

In addition to the above this herd won the Kansas City Stock Yards Trophy for best head owned and shown by exhibitor, in 1926, 1928 and 1929, thus becoming the permanent owner of the trophy. This is the first time in the history of the American Royal that this trophy became the personal property of the exhibitor.

This herd also has the honor of annexing the William R. Nelson Trophy for champion calf, either bull or female, at the American Royal for three consecutive years.

The Present Herd Sires

KING OF THE FAIRIES 1359689

King of the Fairies, a bull of great character and splendid type, was bred in England by the Prince of Wales, and imported to Canada to head the Prince's herd there. In 1925 this bull was International Grand Champion and Champion of Canada. While King of the Fairies is white, his ancestry for four or five generations have been, with one exception, red or dark roan. This explains why the greatest majority of his calves are dark in color.

With calves of King of the Fairies that we have shown we won two firsts, two seconds and senior and grand champion female at Iowa in 1929. Three of his calves showing at the International in 1929 won first in their respective classes, including senior yearling heifer, junior yearling heifer, and senior heifer calf. In 1928 International two of his calves shown won first prize junior yearling heifer, and first prize senior heifer calf. Two of his daughters were in our undefeated yearling herd of 1928. King of the Fairies is as active as a yearling and is a sure breeder, and the performance of his calves concedes him to be one of the greatest breeding bulls of his time.

ROAN VILLAGER 1304097

Roan Villager began his show career as a yearling in 1925, when he consistently won first and junior champion at all the leading shows, continuing his winning habit as a two-year-old and aged bull down to the last show season of 1929. On the 1928 Canadian and American Show Circuit he won his class every time, being made Grand Champion Bull in all but two shows. The two bulls that defeated him for these two championships were in turn defeated by him at least four times each. He is of the Fancy of Ardmore family, which has produced as many good cattle as any family of Shorthorns.

Due to the fact that Roan Villager has made such an extensive show campaign we have not been able to use him as much in our breeding operations as we we should have. However, one of his calves sold in our 1928 sale to the Helfred Farm for $925, and in our 1929 sale another of his calves sold for $610, and the general average of his calves sold in 1929, both in our auction sale and privately, was $405. With the right opportunity he is one of the really great breeding bulls of the breed.

MASQUERADE 1529913

Masquerade was imported from Scotland in 1928, and selected by us, as the best herd sire prospect that had been imported for many years, to use on our Ballylin Rodney, King of the Fairies and Roan Villager heifers. His first crop of calves have more than met our expectations, and visiting breeders at our farm have been highly impressed with the quality of his get. His sire, Match Him, is a brother to Captivator, Macebearer and Economist, all noted stock bulls of Scotland, and Masquerade himself is a full brother to the famous Benefactor. There is no better breeding in the herd books of Scotland and American Shorthorn breeders are fortunate to have the opportunity of the blending of these great bloodlines that have made Scotch Shorthorn history, through a bull of his impressive individuality. One of the best prospects in our young bull offering that was selected for our show herd is sired by him and some of our best matrons have calves at foot by him.

His dam was the highest priced Shorthorn female ever sold at auction. He will be one of the best aged bulls to show this year. A number of the cows and heifers in the sale are bred to him.

Fairy Rosebud was the undefeated senior heifer of the 1929 shows. She is a daughter of two International grand champions, King of the Fairies and Supreme Rosebud, and expert judges say she is a better heifer than the noted Cicely. In her two-year-old form she looks capable of duplicating the show records of her sire and dam.

She is bred to Rodney's Stamp.
